

Families in Recovery

Family Support Meetings

- Family meetings are facilitated by impartial third party mediators to help families:
  - talk about issues that are important to them.
  - listen to each other and feel heard.
  - have open, honest conversations about addiction and recovery.
  - repair relationships.
  - built trust.
  - plan for the future.